A PROCLAMATION

Of the P E A C E made between this Common-wealth, and the Kingdome of France.

L I V E R Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, and Ireland, &c. Whereas by the blessing of God, we have, with the advice of Our Council, made and concluded a Treaty of Peace, Friendship and Amity between this Commonwealth on the one part, and the Kingdome of France, on the other, their Lands, Cities, Towns, Dominions, Territories, Places, and People, by Sea, Land, fresh-Waters, and elsewhere; And whereas by the said Treaty of Peace all Acts of Hostility are to cease on both sides immediately after publication thereof, as well upon y<sup>e</sup> Sea, as at Land, Rivers, & Fresh-Waters, and whatsoever shall be taken by the one from the other after the said Publication, shall well and truly be restored; And all Letters of Marque and Reprisal to be recalled and made void. We have thought fit to make Publication, as we do by these presents, of the aforesaid Treaty and Agreement; and do hereby strictly charge and require all person and persons, of what degree, quality and condition they, or any of them be, belonging to this Commonwealth, to take notice thereof, and conform themselves accordingly. And in further performance of the said Treaty on Our part, we do by these presents require and enjoin all Ships of War, and others belonging to the State, or particular persons set forth upon private Commissions, or otherwise, to observe the said Agreement. And to the end none may pretend ignorance thereof, the Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby required to give effectual notice of the premises to all the ships of War of this Commonwealth, either at Sea or in Port. And the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty are also by virtue of these presents forthwith to call in, upon their several Securities given in that Court, all such Ships as have been set forth upon private Commissions against any of the people or Subjects of France.

Given at Whitehall this 20. day of November 1655.
